Annual Review

Executive Director Andy Biesterfeld presented a power point that detailed the Mission, Vision and Values of the District, District boundaries and service area, statistics on service and capital investment. He presented how the application of the mission vision and values are done daily by staff, and the updated accountability and organizational charts. A comparison of the scorecard metrics for the second quarter of each year 2023, 2024 and 2025 was shown. The presentation culminated with short term goals for each department and a review of the impact that the Park District has on the community.
